

Growing in Faith: Bible Study

Every Wednesday evening 6:30-7:30pm in the Jr. High Lounge a community gathers to nurture one another through spiritual formation, prayer, and Biblical exploration. Whether you have been reading the Bible your whole life or this is your first time, you are welcome!

You don't have to but if you would like to read ahead for that week, here is a look at what the scripture text will be. A great website to find the scripture texts in different versions:

www.biblegateway.com

During the month of June we will discuss the following texts:

Wednesday, June 3rd with Katie Jasa

Wednesday, June 10th with Katie Jasa

Wednesday, June 17th Final Bible Study until the fall with Melissa DeRosia

FROM THE PASTOR

When my girls were little I vividly remember them both going through the “why” stage. It would start innocently enough, “Why do I have to eat peas?” “Why do I have to go to bed?” “Why is the sky blue.” Some days I would provide an answer that satisfied their curiosity and other times another “why” would follow. More answers. More “why’s.” Were they engaged in genuine wonder or had they succeeded in discovering a new way to push boundaries? One may never know... but from a very early age we learn to explore what is and refuse to assume that’s the way it has to be.

My friend Shannon (who you met at my installation and Katie’s ordination) shared a devotional series she recently created for her congregation about wonder. She writes how wonder is the ability and gift to question, think, ponder, and stand in awe of something incomprehensible. Wonder transforms the way we see ourselves, our God, and the world around us. It takes courage to move beyond the fear of our busy world and allow ourselves the time and space to wonder. In order to wonder about God and ourselves we stand grounded in the safety of our faith. We use scripture, teachings, and theology in order to allow the imagination to soar and question the disbelief that inevitability comes from awe of the divine. Shannon raises the questions:

Do we really take the time to explore our faith in wonder?

Do we daydream about questions of life, faith, and God enough?

What would it mean to spend some time each day in wonder?

June is an incredibly busy month for folks as school comes to an end and we try to squeeze in our kids or grandkids concerts, soccer games, and end of the year events into an already packed schedule. And of course when the weather changes, we do all we can to spend time outdoors. This month at GPC our young children and youth will lead us in worship. We will celebrate the transitions of those “graduating” from Jr. Choir and the following Sunday our high school graduates. In all the busyness what might it look like to invite wonder into our lives this month?

The spiritual practice is simple: all we need to do is be on the lookout—using all our senses—for what gives you a sense of wonder today? Here is how it works:

30 Days of Wondering... Everyday!

1. Notice: Find below the list of prompts for each day in June. The prompts suggest where you might look for experiences of wonder. For example, on June 1, “Small,” ask yourself: “What tiny thing or small experience amazes me today?” Whether it’s the bones in your little toe, or a bee dipping into a flower, or a momentary sweet encounter with a stranger on the street—there can be wonder in what’s small.

Note: These prompts need not limit you! Use them or ignore them—the point is to take a moment each day to slow down and simply notice. If you only do those two things—slow down and notice—then you are contributing to our communal spiritual practice! Yet, we hope you’ll take the next step, too:

2. Create: When you notice that flicker of wonder or curiosity—when you notice something gets you wondering in a large or small way—take a picture, write a poem, or scribble a descriptive sentence or two. Have some fun with this second step. No need to be literal about the prompts—just play. Or if being literal increases your wonder, then mine the meaning of each prompt to your heart’s content. See if you can capture in words or imagery some of that childlike amazement that comes with seeing the world “for the first time.”

3. Post: Share your photo or your writing. First post it to our Facebook group at (GPC Member). In this way we will inspire and encourage each other through the month. Then send to Melissa (Melissa@gatespres.org) and we will publish some of the photos, poems, and paragraphs in our July/ August Harbinger.

4. No worries! There is no right or wrong way to engage in this practice, as long as your intention is to reawaken your sense of wonder. Some days will be more of a challenge than others. Don’t worry if you miss a day. Just keep coming back to the practice, and noticing. We can bet that this spiritual practice gets easier with ... practice.

I look forward to “wondering” with you!

- Melissa

EXPLORING SACRED SPACES

How do you define "Sacred Spaces"? Do you think of an awe inspiring cathedral, beautiful mosque, or our own unique sanctuary here at GPC? Or do you think of natural wonders such as Yosemite National Park, Niagara Falls, or the Great Lakes? Maybe you think of sacred spaces as the peaceful and inspirational feeling you get when you are exercising, practicing yoga or participating in a favorite hobby.

The Spiritual Journeys Committee invites you to explore your own beliefs about this topic on their Sacred Spaces journey starting this summer and running through fall. We will be touring buildings, walking a labyrinth, trying out yoga and tapping, and possibly another surprise.

Our first leg will be on Saturday, June 27 with a tour of a Frank Lloyd Wright house in Buffalo. The remaining legs will be held in late September and October. Cost for one or all legs will once again be $5.00 per person, $10.00 per family although the Frank Lloyd Wright house will have an additional admission fee.

Sign-ups for the Frank Lloyd Wright tour are going on now following worship. We will be meeting at GPC for carpooling to Buffalo at 8:45 am with the tour starting at 10:30 a.m. The tour will last approximately 2 hours. Cost is $25.00 per person for this special tour. Come join us!

Signups for the remaining legs will be starting soon as we finalize our plans. Be looking for announcements and bulletin notices for your chance to experience Sacred Spaces.

Are weeds taking over your garden? Do you need a babysitter? How about someone to spread mulch? The Youth Committee has a solution for you -----Work Project Bound!

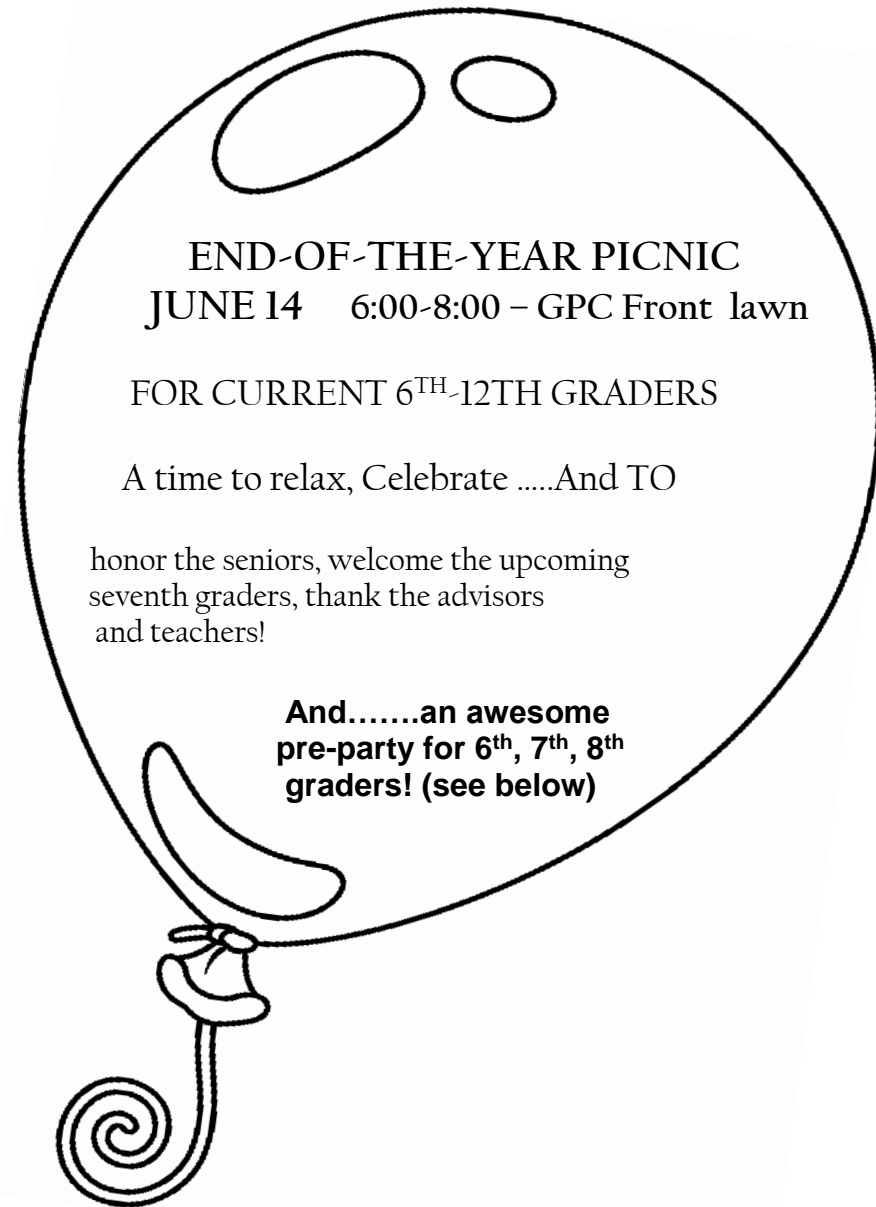

Work Project Bound is a program created to help defray the personal expenses of youth going on mission work projects. Here is how it works:

1. The Youth Committee creates a list of young people who are interested in being part of Work Project Bound
2. You call or email Keith Hadley at 698-8619 or email him at keith.a.hadley@gmail.com or you may call the church office 247-5292 or email office@gatespres.org
3. We give you the name of a youth. We call the youth and tell him/her that you will be contacting him/her. You connect with the youth and make arrangements.
4. You pay $8.00 an hour for the work done. Rather than paying the youth, you put the money in the box in the office marked "Work Project Bound" with the youth's name attached.
5. The youth is then given credit toward his/her Work Project fee.

A win/win to be sure! Thanks!

Tis the season of outdoor picnics . . . and empty bottles and cans!

As you enjoy your summer celebrations, please remember GPC seniors who are collecting bottles and cans to help defray their trip expenses for the February Jamaica Mission Trip. The collection barrels are in the area next to the Fellowship Hall where the trash cans are stored or you can take them to Flower City Bottle and Can on Chili Avenue, 2374 Chili Avenue, right across from the fire station. Just tell them the bottles and cans are for Gates Presbyterian Church and they will send us a check.

Pre-party to the End-of-the-Year Youth Picnic for sixth, seventh, and eighth graders! Meet at GPC at 4:00. All youth graduating 6th – 8th grades are invited to have some fun at go-kart, miniature golf. Returning to GPC at 6:00, we will be ready for the next party - year-end-party! No money needed.
