

WHY I LOVE GPC

Despite calling myself Christian, I admit that I have trouble understanding Jesus' death and resurrection. It is not only the scientist in me that has trouble with the biological aspects of someone dying and then coming back to life, but also the theological aspect of salvation. Did Jesus really have to die and come back to life in order for me to have eternal life? I hope not. I would never want anyone to be put to death in order to save me. Am I supposed to be thankful for that? I do think humans need to know that there is someone that would sacrifice everything for them, and to know there is someone that loves them that much. But do I really need to believe in the resurrection for God to save me?

I believe that everyone on earth is a child of God. God wants all his children to have eternal life. But God continues to allow children of his to be born into non-Christian faiths, knowing that they will never become Christian and therefore will never be saved. Why would he do that to his own kids? What happens to those people? Is it possible that if you live a spiritual life and never know Jesus that you will also have eternal life, or do Christians corner the market? Or will non-Christians be spared because it is really our failing that they are not Christian? God expects us to teach everyone about Jesus, but if we are not successful in our lifetime, will we never make it to heaven? So why does God create people knowing they will never go to heaven? As you can see I have a lot of questions about my faith and religion.

This is why I love GPC. Our church gives me opportunities to explore these questions through acts. I can serve the congregation as an Elder, Deacon, or Trustee. I can serve those less fortunate at numerous mission projects. I can teach the next generation what it means to love my neighbor. I can sing to God without judgement of my vocal skills. I can learn from my brothers and sisters. The time spent with my GPC family provides me with opportunities to live the Golden Rule and I think that is all anyone on this earth needs to be saved. The work I do at GPC gives me that warm, fuzzy feeling inside - my own internal heaven and I am content with that. I will let the afterlife take care of itself.

Peace,
Carrie Dykes

Consider the Mustard Seed

As a new church and school year begins this fall, please consider making a contribution to the Mustard Seed Fund. This Scholarship Program, the brainchild of now deceased, Frank Roberts, a long-time GPC member, is entering its sixteenth year of existence. Each spring, an active GPC high school senior is awarded the annual $1,500 Scholarship toward higher education for a period of four years. If you would like to make a contribution to this Fund, make your check/cash donation to the Mustard Seed Fund. The Fund might also be named as a part of a Will. Should you have any questions, contact Barb Chapman at 426-1375.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Am I the only one who gets a little cranky when stores move me from one season to the next before I am ready? The last day of school is not the time to put out school supplies for fall. Christmas decorations do not need to explode all over the aisle before Halloween. And who in Rochester, NY needs sandals and shorts in January? Well...unless you are from GPC and getting your suitcase ready for a mission trip to Jamaica!

Nature has a gentler approach. The leaves gradually exhale their green and bits of yellow, orange and red creep across the landscape. We place the remainder of the blueberry crop in our freezers and enthusiastically bite into the crisp flesh of an apple. Smiling at the first fragile snowflakes dusting the ground, we push away all thoughts of how much of it there will be to shovel later on. We hang on to hope the day will come again when the crocus will push past the stubborn snow banks and signify spring.

The church also shapes our rhythm and expressions of faith around seasons of the year. We engage in the spiritual practice of waiting in Advent for the light of God's light to shine in our lives. We continue to celebrate that presence at Christmas and Epiphany. During Lent we intentionally focus on our connection to God and celebrate its fullness in Easter. These seasons that guide how we live our faith together are focused on the seasons of Jesus' life and ministry. When seasons of change visit church life in other ways, there are some who may feel like Christmas decorations are out before Halloween. There are some who revel in the first fruits of the season's abundance. And there are others who are sustained by the words from Ecclesiastes 3:1 "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." I feel profoundly grateful that we are a congregation that trusts that the Holy Spirit is at work through all the changes going on right now!

Over the summer the congregation received updates (by letter and through congregational "talk back" sessions) regarding the changes and new seasons we are entering at GPC. We have a new model for pastoral leadership. With Laurelton Presbyterian Church and Katie, we are exploring sharing one person to serve as a part-time Associate Pastor and solo pastor. This fall the GPC session will prayerfully work through the details of a new model to help our community of faith engage deeper in leadership roles serving as ruling elders, deacons, trustees, and other expressions of ministry.

During the month of September, in the midst of these changing seasons at GPC, we will center worship to give thanks to God for the seasons of creation. Each week we'll have a different focus. Keep reading in this issue of the Harbinger for opportunities to engage in faith formation beyond Sunday morning!

Peace,
Melissa

LIVING SEASONS OF CREATION IN EVERYDAY FAITH PRACTICES

Consider supporting personal and family faith formation beyond Sunday morning! These are the scripture passages and themes for each week of worship during September. “The week” begins on Monday and ends with our celebration of the theme in worship on Sunday. Take time each day to read one or more of the texts in your individual or family devotional time. Adapt one or more of the practices into your faith life.

Week One: Planet Earth (Starting August 31st)

Genesis 1:1-25

John 1:1-14

Week Two: Humanity Sunday (Starting September 7th)

Genesis 1:26-28

Psalms 8

Week Three: Sky Sunday (Starting September 14th)

Jeremiah 4:23-28

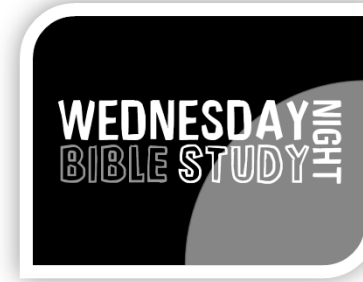

Psalms 19:1-6

September 27th Mountain Sunday (Starting September 21st)

Isaiah 65:17-25

Psalms 48:1-11

- Each day talk about the parts of God’s creation you are thankful for and say a brief prayer: “Creator God, we sometimes forget that you have created us and all that we need to survive. We benefit daily from creation. May we be mindful of the way you are present with us in it. Amen.”
- Create a small worship or prayer space in your home. A small table, kitchen table, or counter space will do! Use a piece of fabric the color of the sky. Add a candle or other symbol of faith. Each week add something that represents the theme for the week. It might be a picture or actual item from creation. If you spend a lot of time at your computer make your screen wallpaper an image that represents each theme.
- Take a nature walk in a nearby park each week. Focus on one element of nature from the theme of the week. Use your sense to smell, touch, listen, and look more intently at what you have chosen. Bring a journal with you. Write about your experience or sketch a drawing.
- Plan a “clean up” time with friends from church or family. Walk around your neighborhood or be adventurous and pick a different one! Wear some gloves, grab a trash bag, and help care for God’s creation.

Every Wednesday evening 6:30-7:30pm in the Jr. High Lounge a community gathers to nurture one another through spiritual formation, prayer, and Biblical exploration. Whether you have been reading the Bible your whole life or this is your first time, you are welcome! You don’t have to but if you would like to read ahead for that week, here is a look at what the scripture text will be. A great website to find the scripture texts in different versions: www.biblegateway.com

During September we will reflect on the following texts:

Wednesday, September 9th Genesis 1:1-28

Wednesday, September 16th Jeremiah 4:23-28

Wednesday, September 23rd Isaiah 65:17-25

Wednesday, September 30th Genesis 2:18-24

HOSPITAL CALLS

The Pastors and members of the Board of Deacons make hospital visits when notified of a hospitalization. Please contact the church office (247-5292) if you know of such a need. Note that because of privacy concerns, hospitals do not contact pastors nor share information with the church unless instructed to do so. You should call the church office to request a visit.

HOME COMMUNION

Teaching and Ruling Elders, Deacons, and other caregivers participate in the celebration of home Communion. During these visits to homebound GPC members, those serving the Sacrament of Communion take time to visit with the care-receiver, especially inquiring about their needs and how the caregiver may pray for them and their loved ones. To request home Communion, please contact the office by phone (247-5292) or email office@gatespres.org

MEN 2 MEN

Men 2 Men will have a pizza breakfast September 27 at 8:00 am in Room 3. We are studying some lesser known biblical heroes. Bezaleel, the chief architect of the mobile tabernacle while in the wilderness, will be the hero of September. Suggested donation for the breakfast is $5.00. Signup sheet is on the Kiosk.

A NOTE FROM KATIE:

September 1st marks the first day of my new position. I'll be serving half-time here at GPC, and half-time as Laurelton Presbyterian's solo pastor. I'll be in the office at GPC on Tuesdays and Fridays, so feel free to come by and chat! I'll be in worship on September 20th, and here for every youth group meeting. If you've got any questions about my new hours here, just let me know!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Membership and Hospitality Committee is asking for volunteers to help out with the parking lot valet services this coming winter. Generally volunteers are only asked to help out 2 or 3 Sundays through the winter months. This is a valuable service provided for our Church family. Please make a note in the hospitality register or contact Eric Vail 889-5491 (email vailagency@yahoo.com) or contact the Church office (247-5292) if you can help. Thank you.

LUNCH BUNCH

The Lunch Bunch ladies are waiting for you. It's time to dust off your knitting needles, crochet hooks, needles and threads, etc. to help prepare items that we can sell at the October and November fundraising events. We will resume our Tuesday meetings in the Fellowship Hall beginning September 8th from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Bring a bag lunch, we will supply hot beverages. We're always looking for new people and new ideas.

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY – October 4th

Celebrating World Communion Sunday has taken on a new relevancy and depth of meaning in a world where globalization often has undermined peace and justice – and in a time when fear divides the people of God’s earth. On this day we celebrate our oneness in Christ, the Prince of Peace, in the midst of the world we are called to serve – a world ever more in need of peacemaking.

Mission Focus: Peacemaking Offering – Create a World of Peace

The Peacemaking Offering is one of the four Presbyterian Church (USA) denominational offerings. Twenty-five percent of the offering received is used for local ministries of peacemaking within the church and its community. Twenty-five percent is used by presbyteries and synods, and 50% is used by the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program. A Peacemaking Envelope will be included in your October Harbinger and in the October 4th bulletin.
